

Are you a Smart Business?

Recycling works. It can save your organization money in avoided disposal costs and may produce revenue.
Recycling also saves energy and natural resources.
Recycling is not only good business, it's smart business!

"It doesn't cost. It pays."

Don't be left out! Recycle and report.

You can help South Carolina meet its recycling goal of 35 percent. Reporting is easy. Keep track of what and how much you recycle and then either contact your local recycling coordinator or enter the information online yourself. Click here for more information.

Remember, your numbers count and are needed to reach the goal.

Do your part. Recycle and report.

If you have any questions regarding reporting or recycling, please call 1-800-768-7348 or email us at smartbiz@dhec.sc.gov.

Wanted: Recycling Success Stories

If you have a great recycling/waste reduction program where you work, tell us about it and your story may be featured on our Web page and electronic newsletter. Think of it as your way of inspiring other organizations to do the right thing.

You may want to include what materials you collect, how much money your organization has saved or made by recycling and any tips you have for others wanting to start a recycling program. All you have to do is e-mail your success story to smartbiz@dhec.sc.gov.
